LITTLE NELLIE OF HOLY GOD

1903-1908

by Sister John Vianney

Little Nellie was not yet four and a half when God took her to Heaven, but she had already made her First Communion.

She knew that in Holy Communion she was receiving God. She always called Him "Holy God".

When the Holy Father, Pope St. Pius X, heard about Little Nellie, he cried, "There! That is the sign for which I was waiting." Then the Holy Father said that children could receive Holy Communion when they were little. They would no longer have to wait till age 12.
